

I AM -
THE WHIRLWIND &
THE THUNDER

it's the Roar of Many Waters

Dedication

To My Beloved Holy Spirit

You are the wind that moves the whirlwind, the thunder that roars in the heavens, and the voice that speaks within me. Without You, there is no revelation, no utterance, no power. You are the breath of the Almighty, the consuming fire, the One who anoints, equips, and sends forth.

This book is not mine—it is Yours. Every word, every insight, every mystery revealed is a testimony of Your presence, guidance, and unfailing wisdom. You have taught me to listen, to discern, to speak, and to be silent. You have led me through the wilderness, through the fire, through the deep waters, and in every season, You have remained my closest companion.

I lay this work at Your feet, an offering of obedience and surrender. May every reader encounter You through these pages. May they hear Your voice within these words, may their hearts burn with the fire of revelation, and may they rise as the voices of God in this generation.

Holy Spirit, be glorified.

This book belongs to You.

FOREWORD

Throughout history, God has chosen men and women as vessels to proclaim His voice upon the earth. These chosen ones, called prophets, have been entrusted with divine messages that shape destinies, shift nations, and establish the will of God in the midst of men. Yet, the essence of being the Voice of God goes beyond mere proclamation; it is a calling into deep intimacy, obedience, and alignment with the very breath of God.

This book, I AM - the Whirlwind & the Thunder; it's the Roar of Many Waters, is not merely a theological exposition but a revelation that will awaken the prophetic dimension within you. It is an invitation to step into the very atmosphere of God's voice—where His whispers become your declarations, where His roar becomes your utterance.

As you journey through these pages, you will encounter mysteries that have remained hidden from the common eye—truths that unveil the lifestyle, purpose, and function of a prophet. You will learn that while the gift of prophecy may operate in many, the calling of a prophet is a mantle, a consecration, a life set apart. You will discover how the Voice of God manifests as a whirlwind, as thunder, as the roar of many waters, breaking the barriers of the natural and enforcing heaven's will on earth.

This book is not for the casual reader. It is for the seeker—the one who desires to hear, speak, and live as the mouthpiece of God. The revelations contained within these pages will stir your spirit, break limitations, and activate your ability to hear the Lord with clarity and confidence.

May your eyes be opened, your ears be unstopped, and your spirit be ignited as you embark on this prophetic journey. The Whirlwind and the Thunder are calling—will you answer?

In His Name & For His Glory,

PREFACE

The Voice of God is not just sound; it is movement. It is not just speech; it is the force that shapes existence. From the very beginning, the voice of the Lord brought order out of chaos, light out of darkness, and life out of nothingness. When God speaks, realms shift, structures are uprooted, and destinies are birthed.

This book, I AM - the Whirlwind & the Thunder; it's the Roar of Many Waters, is a divine unveiling of the weight of God's voice in the life of His chosen ones. It is a journey into the prophetic mandate—the calling, the function, and the responsibility of being the very mouthpiece of God on the earth.

Many speak, but not all echo the voice of the Eternal. Many prophesy, but not all have been set apart as prophets. There is a difference between operating in the gift of prophecy and carrying the mantle of a prophet. This book will not only clarify this distinction but will awaken and align those chosen to be God's voice in their generation.

You will learn how the prophetic voice is not merely words, but an instrument of war—to root out, pull down, destroy, throw down, build, and plant through divine utterance. You will see how listening to the voice of God is the foundation of speaking His will. You will also be taken into the depths of the lifestyle of a prophet, for a prophet is not just one who speaks, but one who lives within the very heartbeat of God.

This book is not a casual read—it is an encounter. As you go through these pages, the spirit of prophecy will begin to stir within you. Your ears will open, your heart will burn, and your mouth will become an instrument for the roar of many waters.

Let those who have ears to hear—hear what the Spirit is saying!

With Divine Purpose,

INTRODUCTION

From the beginning of time, the Voice of God has shaped creation. It was His voice that commanded light to pierce the darkness, His breath that formed life out of dust, and His word that set the boundaries of existence. But the voice of God did not stop echoing at creation—it has continued through the mouths of those He has chosen, through the prophets, through those set apart to carry His word and execute His will upon the earth.

This book, I AM - the Whirlwind & the Thunder; it's the Roar of Many Waters, is a call to alignment for those chosen to be His voice. The prophetic mandate is not a title—it is an identity. It is not just the ability to hear—it is the weight of speaking what has been heard. This book is not merely about prophecy, but about the life and function of the prophet, the one who does not just speak for God but speaks as the extension of His voice on earth.

Many operate in the gift of prophecy, but few walk in the office of a prophet. The distinction is critical. While the gift of prophecy is available to all believers, the call to be a prophet is a consecration, a life of complete surrender and obedience to the voice of God. A prophet does not choose their calling; they are chosen, set apart, and forged through fire.

This book will take you into the realities of the prophetic life—from the cost of carrying the voice of God to the power that is released through divine utterance. It will unveil the process of becoming the roar of many waters, the thunder that shakes nations, and the whirlwind that disrupts and establishes according to God's will. It will teach how to listen with spiritual ears and speak with prophetic authority, understanding that words are not mere sound—they are weapons, they are blueprints, and they are divine instruments of transformation.

Throughout history, prophets have been misunderstood, rejected, and even silenced. Yet, their voices remain eternal, for the words of the Lord do not pass away. This book is a call to those who have been feeling the stirring of the prophetic, to those who have heard whispers in the spirit and longed to understand their purpose, to those who have experienced the fire of God's voice and are being drawn into deeper realms of prophetic alignment.

This is not just a book—it is a prophetic commissioning. As you journey through these pages, may your ears be opened, your spirit ignited, and your mouth become a vessel through which the whirlwind and the thunder of God's voice resound upon the earth.

Are you ready to step into your calling?

PASSAGE 1: THE PROPHETIC VOICE—THE WHIRLWIND & THE THUNDER

Episode 1: The Origin of the Voice

In the beginning, before the birth of time, before the stars burned with their first light, and before creation exhaled its first breath—there was a Voice. This Voice did not emerge from the void, nor was it shaped by existence, for it was existence itself. It was the uncreated sound, the eternal resonance of the Almighty.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (John 1:1)

Before anything was ever seen or touched, the Voice of God filled the realm of eternity. It was neither an echo nor a vibration—it was pure authority, raw creative power, the very essence of God. It did not originate—it always was. It did not develop—it always reigned.

When the divine utterance pierced the silence, existence bent in obedience. Matter responded, light was birthed, dimensions unfolded, and the seen realm emerged from the unseen. The voice did not suggest—it commanded. It did not ask—it decreed.

"God said, 'Let there be light,' and there was light." (Genesis 1:3)

Creation was not formed by hands, nor was it fashioned through labor. The universe did not arise through process—it was spoken into existence. The words of God did not describe reality; they defined it.

This is the origin of the Voice—the foundation of all things seen and unseen. It is this same Voice that still speaks, calling prophets, shaping destinies, uprooting and planting nations, and declaring what shall be.

"These six actions—rooting out, pulling down, destroying, throwing down, building, and planting—are accomplished through prophetic speech."

The same breath that hovered over the waters still moves in the heart of those chosen to carry it. The question remains—will you yield to the Voice, or will you resist its call?

Episode 2: The Creative Power of Prophetic Utterance

When God spoke, creation did not hesitate. The Word did not return void; it accomplished all that it was sent to do. This is the immutable law of prophetic utterance: when words align with heaven, they do not fall to the ground—they manifest.

"So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it." (Isaiah 55:11)

Every spoken word from God is a seed of destiny. When it is released, it carries within itself the power to perform what it declares. God did not create by working—He created by speaking. He did not construct the world through effort—He released it through His Voice.

It is this same principle that governs prophetic speech. When a prophet stands under the unction of the Holy Spirit, their words do not merely express—they establish. Their declarations are not suggestions—they are divine decrees carrying the full weight of the Throne of God.

The Power of Divine Alignment

The effectiveness of prophetic utterance is not in the volume of the voice but in the alignment with heaven. When a word originates from the throne room of God, it carries the same creative power that shaped the universe. Heaven only backs what heaven initiates.

Jesus demonstrated this authority when He rebuked storms, cursed barren trees, and commanded the dead to rise—and all of creation obeyed. Why? Because His words were not earth-born opinions; they were heaven-born decrees.

"The Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner." (John 5:19)

Prophets are not called to speak their own words but to echo the voice of God. When their words are in sync with the Spirit, creation itself bends in obedience.

Prophetic Speech: The Power to Uproot & Establish

Jeremiah was not called merely to observe—he was called to enforce heaven's will on earth. The mandate given to him was clear:

"See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant." (Jeremiah 1:10)

Notice the order:

1. Rooting out and pulling down (breaking demonic foundations).
2. Destroying and throwing down (dismantling structures that oppose God's kingdom).
3. Building and planting (establishing divine order).

These six actions are not accomplished by human effort but through prophetic speech. When a prophet speaks under divine authority, strongholds crumble, destinies shift, and nations are reshaped.

Your Words Carry the Power of Life & Death

Words are not empty vibrations; they are containers of power. Every word carries the potential to either construct or collapse, bless or curse, create or destroy.

"Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit." (Proverbs 18:21)

When prophets align their utterance with God's decree, they do not merely hope—they establish. They do not wish for change—they enforce it. Their voices become the vessels of divine creation.

It is not enough to hear—you must speak. Creation awaits the manifestation of the sons of God, those who carry heaven's Voice and declare what has been written in eternity.

"These six actions—rooting out, pulling down, destroying, throwing down, building, and planting—are accomplished through prophetic speech."

Will you be the one who merely listens, or will you be the one who speaks and shifts atmospheres?

Episode 3: The Voice as a Consuming Fire

When God speaks, His Voice is not passive—it is an all-consuming fire. It does not merely resonate; it devours, refines, and transforms everything in its path. The prophetic Voice of God is not meant to entertain ears but to burn away the dross, purify hearts, and establish divine order.

"Therefore, understand today that the Lord your God is He who goes over before you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and bring them down before you; so you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the Lord has said to you." (Deuteronomy 9:3)

The fire of God's Voice is a two-edged reality—for the righteous, it is a refining flame; for the rebellious, it is a devouring fire. Those who carry His Voice must be prepared, for it will first burn within them before it burns through them.

The Fire That Speaks

At Mount Sinai, when God descended, His Voice was not a gentle whisper—it was fire, smoke, and trembling.

"Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled."

(Exodus 19:16)

The Israelites could not endure the weight of His Voice; they begged Moses to speak instead (Exodus 20:19). Why? Because when God speaks, flesh cannot remain comfortable. His Voice exposes, convicts, uproots, and consumes everything that is not aligned with His holiness.

God's prophetic Voice carries the same nature today—it challenges darkness, purifies the vessel, and ignites revival.

The Prophet & The Furnace

Every prophet is first forged in fire before they carry it. Before Isaiah could speak on behalf of God, he had to be purified by the coal from the altar.

"Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from the altar. And he touched my mouth with it, and said: 'Behold, this has touched your lips; your iniquity is taken away, and your sin purged.'"
(Isaiah 6:6-7)

Notice: Before Isaiah could declare God's words, his own mouth had to be cleansed by fire. This is the prophet's furnace—the burning away of self before becoming the Voice of God.

If you desire to speak for God, be prepared to be refined by God. He does not entrust His Voice to those who cling to their own agendas.

"Is not My word like a fire?" says the Lord, "And like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?"
(Jeremiah 23:29)

A true prophetic vessel does not dilute the fire of God's Voice to make it comfortable for men. It is either received in repentance or rejected in rebellion—but it will never be ignored.

The Fire That Consumes & Builds

Jeremiah was a man who could not contain the fire of God's Voice:

"Then I said, 'I will not make mention of Him, nor speak anymore in His name.' But His word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I was weary of holding it back, and I could not."
(Jeremiah 20:9)

The fire of the prophetic Voice does not allow silence. It will burn within until it is released. But notice—this fire does not only consume; it also builds.

"See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant." (Jeremiah 1:10)

God's fire does six things through His Voice:

1. Roots out—dismantling demonic foundations.
2. Pulls down—tearing down false systems.
3. Destroys—burning away what is impure.
4. Throws down—overthrowing powers of darkness.
5. Builds—establishing divine order.
6. Plants—setting new foundations in place.

"These six actions—rooting out, pulling down, destroying, throwing down, building, and planting—are accomplished through prophetic speech."

The fire of God's Voice destroys strongholds and establishes heaven's will. Those who carry it must be unshaken, unafraid, and unwavering.

Will You Carry the Fire?

Moses trembled at the fire of God's Voice. Elijah called it down from heaven. Jeremiah burned with it. John the Baptist was a man set on fire by it.

Will you be the next one?

The Voice of God is not for the passive or the complacent—it is for those willing to burn with His holiness. When you speak, will your words entertain, or will they set men ablaze for the kingdom?

If you are ready to carry His fire, prepare yourself—the furnace is waiting.

PASSAGE 2: THE LIFE & PURPOSE OF A CHOSEN PROPHET

Episode 4: Before You Were Formed, I Knew You

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you a prophet to the nations." (Jeremiah 1:5)

The calling of a prophet is not a sudden event—it is an eternal ordination. Before the foundations of the earth were laid, God foreknew, predestined, and set apart His prophets. This is not a role earned by merit or training; it is a divine election made before birth.

To be chosen as God's mouthpiece is to walk in a destiny that was written in eternity. Prophets do not choose their calling; they are born into it, often before they even understand what it means.

The Eternal Blueprint

God did not call Jeremiah when he was a man—He called him before he was even formed in the womb. This means that:

1. Prophets exist in God's heart before they exist in time.
2. Their lives are orchestrated to fulfill divine purpose.
3. Their calling is sanctified, meaning set apart from the beginning.

This divine ordination is why prophets often feel like outcasts before they even realize their purpose. They do not fit into the world's systems because their DNA is encoded with the blueprint of heaven.

Marked by God from Birth

Many prophets in Scripture experienced divine intervention from the womb:

- Jeremiah—Known and ordained before conception (Jeremiah 1:5).
- Samuel—Dedicated to the Lord from birth (1 Samuel 1:27-28).
- John the Baptist—Filled with the Holy Spirit from the womb (Luke 1:15).
- Jesus Christ Himself—Prophesied before birth (Isaiah 7:14).

A prophetic calling is not just a moment of realization; it is a life-long unfolding of a destiny written by God.

This is why many true prophets face warfare from infancy—the enemy recognizes their assignment before they do. Moses was hunted as a baby; Jesus had an entire decree issued for His death. The enemy fears a prophet before they even speak, because their voice carries the power to shift nations.

"And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born." (Revelation 12:4)

The Weight of the Call

Being chosen before birth means that prophets do not belong to themselves. They are not free to live as they please, because their lives have been claimed by the One who formed them.

Jeremiah tried to excuse himself from the call:

"Ah, Lord God! Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth." (Jeremiah 1:6)

But God rejected his excuse, because His call does not depend on age, experience, or eloquence. His words carry power because they come from Him.

"Do not say, 'I am a youth,' for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and whatever I command you, you shall speak." (Jeremiah 1:7)

God does not call the qualified—He qualifies the called.

A Prophet's Identity is in the One Who Calls

Many prophets wrestle with self-doubt. They feel unworthy, inadequate, or too flawed to be God's Voice. Yet the truth is:

- You were chosen before you had weaknesses.
- You were ordained before you had fears.
- You were sent before you had strength.

God does not call those who are ready—He calls those who are chosen. And He prepares them along the way.

If you have ever wondered why you never quite fit in, why you see differently, or why your life has been a collision of rejection and refining—it is because you were formed for a purpose greater than yourself.

You were not called when you heard His Voice—you were called before you ever had ears to hear.

Will You Accept Who You Were Formed to Be?

Every prophet reaches a moment where they must embrace or reject their calling. You can either:

1. Run like Jonah—and be pursued by God until you surrender.

2. Argue like Moses—and realize that your limitations mean nothing to Him.
3. Weep like Jeremiah—and still be sent forth as a voice to the nations.

Or, you can accept your identity and walk boldly in the authority given to you before birth.

The question is not whether you were chosen. The question is whether you will yield.

"Before you were formed, I knew you. Before you were born, I sanctified you. I ordained you as My prophet."

Will you step into the identity that heaven has already written?

Episode 5: The Burden of the Call

*"Then I said, 'I will not make mention of Him, nor speak any more in His name.' But His word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I was weary of holding it back, and I could not."
(Jeremiah 20:9)*

The call of a prophet is not a glamorous journey; it is a weighty burden. To carry God's voice is to carry His heart—and His heart is often heavy. Prophets do not simply speak; they feel the emotions of God, His desires, His pain, and His judgments.

Many admire the prophetic anointing but do not understand the cost attached to it. The true call of a prophet is not a crown—it is a cross.

The Price of Carrying the Voice

A prophet is not just a messenger—he is a living conduit of heaven's agenda. This means:

1. You will be set apart.
2. You will carry words that are not your own.
3. You will often stand alone.

Prophets in Scripture were not celebrated—they were persecuted, rejected, and even killed. Why?

Because the voice of God confronts, convicts, and calls for change.

"Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute?" (Acts 7:52)

A prophet who speaks only what people want to hear is not a prophet—he is a pleaser of men. But a true prophet must speak what heaven commands, even when it brings opposition.

Jeremiah was beaten and imprisoned.

Elijah was hunted.

John the Baptist was beheaded.

Jesus—the greatest Prophet—was crucified.

To bear the voice of God is to bear His rejection among men.

Set Apart for God's Purpose

Prophets are not called to fit in—they are called to stand out. This means they often feel misunderstood, isolated, or different from childhood.

Even before their calling is revealed, prophets tend to experience:

- A deep sensitivity to God's presence

- A strong discernment of truth and deception
- Unusual spiritual experiences or divine encounters
- Rejection and opposition from people, even without cause

Why? Because they are being set apart for an assignment that requires purity, boldness, and complete dependence on God.

"Come out from among them and be separate," says the Lord. (2 Corinthians 6:17)

The life of a prophet is a life of separation—not for pride, but for consecration. They must live different because their voice must remain pure.

The Fire That Cannot Be Contained

Many prophets, at some point, try to run from their calling. They see the burden, the loneliness, and the suffering and say, "I did not sign up for this."

- Moses pleaded, "Send someone else."
- Jeremiah said, "I will not speak anymore."
- Jonah ran in the opposite direction.

But every true prophet finds that the call cannot be escaped. The voice of God is a fire shut up in their bones—it will not let them go.

When you are truly called, you will never find peace outside of your purpose. You may try to ignore the voice, but the voice will not ignore you.

Like Jonah, you will find yourself in a storm.
Like Jeremiah, you will feel the fire burn within you.
Like Moses, you will realize you were born for this.

The burden is heavy, but the grace to carry it is greater.

Are You Willing to Pay the Price?

Many want the prophetic anointing, but few want the prophetic suffering. Yet the two cannot be separated.

To be God's voice means:

- You will not always be accepted.
- You will not always be understood.
- You will not always be comfortable.

But if you embrace the burden, you will carry the glory.

*"If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me."
(Matthew 16:24)*

The prophetic mantle is not for the faint of heart.
But for those who yield, it becomes a fire that transforms nations.

Will you embrace the weight of your calling?

Will you carry the burden of His voice?

Or will you run like Jonah, only to be chased by the One who called you?

The burden is real. The fire is consuming. The call is undeniable.

What will you do with it?

Episode 6: Set Apart for the Nations

*"See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant."
(Jeremiah 1:10)*

The prophetic call is not a local assignment; it is a global mandate. When God calls a prophet, He does not simply raise up a voice—He raises up a governmental instrument. Prophets are set apart, not just for a people, but for the destiny of nations.

To be a prophet is to be a divine strategist—one through whom God shifts seasons, overturns rulers, and aligns territories with heaven's decree. The voice of a prophet is not just a message—it is a movement.

Set Over Nations & Kingdoms

God told Jeremiah, "I have set you over the nations and kingdoms." A prophet does not simply function within the four walls of the church; he operates in the realms of authority over nations.

This means prophets:

1. Release divine warnings before destruction.
2. Speak the rise and fall of kings and rulers.
3. Shift spiritual climates over entire regions.

Throughout Scripture, we see prophets engaged in the affairs of nations:

- Moses confronted Pharaoh and released plagues over Egypt.
- Elijah shut the heavens over Israel for three and a half years.
- Isaiah prophesied the rise of Cyrus long before he was born.
- Daniel interpreted dreams that shaped entire empires.

Prophets do not just speak to individuals—they speak to systems, governments, and territories. They are watchmen on the walls of nations.

The Cost of Being Set Apart

To be set apart is to be set above—but this comes with a price. A prophet must live differently because his voice carries authority.

1. A Prophet Cannot Speak Carelessly
  - His words create, shift, and uproot.

- Idle speech can bring destruction.
  - Every word must be measured before the throne of God.
2. A Prophet Cannot Compromise with the World
- He is called to challenge, not conform.
  - He cannot seek political favor over divine truth.
  - He must speak what God commands, not what men desire.
3. A Prophet Cannot Be Attached to Comfort
- His journey is often one of exile, rejection, and opposition.
  - Like John the Baptist, he may be called to the wilderness.
  - Like Elijah, he may be sent to a cave.
  - Like Jeremiah, he may be cast into a pit.

A prophet's dwelling place is not among men, but in the secret place with God.

"Let him who has My word speak My word faithfully!" (Jeremiah 23:28)

The Authority to Root Out & Plant

God told Jeremiah that his words carried a sixfold power:

1. To root out – Exposing the foundations of darkness.
2. To pull down – Tearing apart demonic strongholds.
3. To destroy – Dismantling false altars and idolatrous systems.
4. To throw down – Overturning ungodly rulerships and decrees.
5. To build – Establishing the foundations of righteousness.
6. To plant – Cultivating new movements and divine structures.

"These six actions—rooting out, pulling down, destroying, throwing down, building, and planting—are accomplished through prophetic speech."

A prophet's voice is not just a word—it is a weapon. It tears down and raises up. It dismantles the past and unlocks the future.

When Elijah spoke, the heavens closed and opened.
When Ezekiel prophesied, dry bones came to life.
When Samuel anointed David, a kingdom was established.

Every true prophet is given a nation-shifting mantle.

Prophetic Assignments Over Nations

Prophets are not just called to churches—they are called to nations. Their words carry territorial weight.

- Some prophets are sent to warn nations before judgment. (Jonah to Nineveh)
- Some are sent to confront rulers in power. (Nathan to David)
- Some are sent to shift governmental alignments. (Elisha influencing kings)
- Some are called to intercede for entire lands. (Abraham for Sodom & Gomorrah)

The highest dimension of the prophetic is not personal prophecy—it is territorial prophecy. A prophet who is only concerned with individuals has not yet stepped into the full weight of his mantle.

The prophets who changed history were those who stood before kings, rulers, and nations.

"Is there not a prophet of the Lord here, that we may inquire of Him?" (2 Kings 3:11)

The Prophet's Mandate: To Speak & Not Be Silent

God does not raise up prophets to keep silent. He raises them to sound an alarm.

"Cry aloud, spare not; lift up your voice like a trumpet!" (Isaiah 58:1)

The enemy's greatest strategy is to silence the voice of God in the earth. This is why:

- Jezebel sought to kill Elijah.
- Herod imprisoned and beheaded John the Baptist.
- The Pharisees sought to stop Jesus.

A prophet's voice is dangerous to darkness. This is why every true prophet faces intense warfare.

Yet, a prophet must not retreat. The moment he stops speaking, the enemy gains ground.

The Roar of a True Prophet

When a prophet is set apart for nations, his voice cannot be tamed. He does not seek permission to speak—he speaks because he has been sent.

"The Lord has spoken, who can but prophesy?" (Amos 3:8)

A true prophet does not whisper—he roars.

"The Lion has roared—who will not fear?" (Amos 3:8)

This is why prophets:

- Shake nations with their words.
- Destroy demonic systems with their decrees.
- Release heavenly blueprints that realign territories.

The prophetic voice must be heard in every generation. When the prophets remain silent, nations fall into darkness.

Will you be silent, or will you roar?

A Final Charge

To be set apart for nations means:

- You must see beyond yourself.
- You must carry the burdens of territories.
- You must release the decrees of heaven with boldness.

The time of silence is over. The time of compromise is over.

God is raising prophets with fire in their bones.
Prophets who will not bow. Prophets who will not retreat. Prophets who will shake nations.

Are you one of them?

PASSAGE 3: THE LIFESTYLE OF A PROPHET

Episode 7: Walking in the Spirit of Prophecy

"And I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, 'See that you do not do that! I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.'" (Revelation 19:10)

To walk in the Spirit of Prophecy is to walk in the heartbeat of God. It is more than an occasional word of revelation; it is a lifestyle of continuous communion with the voice of the Holy Spirit.

The Spirit of Prophecy is not just about foretelling the future—it is about being so deeply aligned with God that His words flow through you without hindrance. It is the testimony of Jesus—the revelation of His nature, His plans, and His authority in the earth.

A prophet does not just hear God occasionally—he dwells in the realm of His voice.

The Spirit of Prophecy Is the Atmosphere of Heaven

Wherever the Spirit of Prophecy is active, the atmosphere shifts:

- Revelation is unlocked.
- Hidden mysteries are unveiled.
- The will of God is declared and established.

Prophets do not simply function through giftings—they function through presence. The presence of God creates an environment where the prophetic becomes natural.

This is why:

- When Elisha needed to prophesy, he called for a minstrel (a worshiper), and as the music played, the hand of the Lord came upon him. (2 Kings 3:15)
- When Saul entered the company of prophets, the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he prophesied. (1 Samuel 10:10)
- When John received the Revelation, he was "in the Spirit on the Lord's Day," caught up into divine encounters. (Revelation 1:10)

Prophecy is not manufactured—it is received. A prophet lives in the flow of the Spirit, where divine utterance becomes his very breath.

The Necessity of Continual Communion

A prophet cannot afford to be disconnected from God's presence. His very existence depends on hearing. The moment he stops hearing, his vision dims, and his voice weakens.

This is why Jesus declared:

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God."
(Matthew 4:4)

A prophet must:

1. Remain in a Posture of Worship
  - Worship is the gateway to the prophetic realm.
  - The voice of God flows where He is enthroned.
  - A worshipping prophet is a hearing prophet.
2. Cultivate Sensitivity to the Holy Spirit
  - Prophets must learn to recognize divine impressions.
  - They must be aware of how God speaks—whether by visions, dreams, impressions, or direct speech.
  - Sensitivity is the difference between accuracy and error.
3. Guard Against Distractions
  - A prophet's greatest enemy is spiritual noise.

- The world's voice competes with the voice of God.
- True prophets silence the distractions and prioritize divine intimacy.

Moses could hear God clearly because he dwelt in the tent of meeting (Exodus 33:11). Samuel could receive the word of the Lord because he slept next to the Ark of the Covenant (1 Samuel 3:3). A prophet must dwelt where God dwells.

The Spirit of Prophecy Governs Speech

A true prophet does not speak his own words—he speaks the oracles of God. The Spirit of Prophecy demands purity of speech.

"If they had stood in My counsel, and had caused My people to hear My words, then they would have turned them from their evil way." (Jeremiah 23:22)

This means:

- A prophet cannot speak from emotion.
- A prophet cannot prophesy out of personal opinions.
- A prophet cannot manipulate prophecy for personal gain.

"The Lord God has spoken—who can but prophesy?" (Amos 3:8)

The voice of a prophet is not his own. His words are dictated by heaven's decree.

Prophetic Accuracy & The Fear of the Lord

A prophet who truly walks in the Spirit of Prophecy will be governed by the fear of the Lord. He will not speak carelessly, nor will he attempt to fabricate revelation.

"Every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him. Do not add to His words, lest He rebuke you and you be found a liar." (Proverbs 30:5-6)

Accuracy in the prophetic is not about how much is said—it is about how true it is.

This is why:

- Samuel's words never fell to the ground (1 Samuel 3:19).
- Nathan rebuked David without compromise (2 Samuel 12:7).
- Jesus only spoke what He heard the Father say (John 12:49).

A prophet who does not fear the Lord will fall into error. But a prophet who values the purity of God's words will speak with unshakable authority.

Living as an Oracle of God

To walk in the Spirit of Prophecy is to live as an oracle—a voice that speaks only what Heaven speaks.

This means:

- A prophet is a vessel, not the source.
- A prophet is a messenger, not the message.
- A prophet is an echo of God, not an originator of revelation.

Elijah did not prophesy his own desires—he declared what heaven decreed.

Jeremiah did not soften his words to please men—he spoke what God commanded.

Jesus Himself declared, “I do nothing of Myself, but as My Father has taught Me, I speak these things.” (John 8:28)

A prophet who walks in the Spirit of Prophecy does not worry about acceptance or rejection—he speaks because he has been sent.

"What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops." (Matthew 10:27)

A Charge to Those Called to Walk in the Prophetic

If you are called as a prophet, this is your charge:

- Remain in the secret place.
- Walk in continual communion with the Spirit.
- Do not fear man—fear God.
- Speak only what is given to you.
- Let your life be governed by the voice of heaven.

The Spirit of Prophecy is not just an anointing—it is a realm. It is an invitation into God's very heart, where His secrets are revealed, and His voice becomes your voice.

Are you ready to walk in it?

Episode 8: Prophetic Obedience—Speaking What You Hear

"For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak." (John 12:49)

To be a prophet is to be an unfiltered voice of God—a vessel through which His will is declared without distortion, hesitation, or compromise. The prophetic call is not just about hearing God; it is about obedience in speaking exactly what He says.

Many prophets hear accurately but speak incorrectly. They mix divine utterance with human reasoning, allowing their emotions, fears, or opinions to taint the purity of God's voice. This is where many fall—not in hearing, but in obeying the instruction without alteration.

The Weight of a Prophetic Word

When a prophet speaks, it is not his own words that carry weight, but the authority of the One who sent him.

- Moses was commanded to speak to Pharaoh with boldness, declaring, “Thus says the Lord.” (Exodus 5:1)

- Ezekiel was told to eat the scroll and speak only what God put in his mouth.
(Ezekiel 3:1-4)
- Jeremiah was given words that would uproot, destroy, build, and plant nations.
(Jeremiah 1:10)

A prophet's words shape destinies, shift atmospheres, and establish the decrees of heaven. This is why prophetic obedience is not optional—it is the very foundation of the office.

The Danger of Altering the Message

"Do not add to His words, lest He rebuke you and you be found a liar." (Proverbs 30:6)

The moment a prophet modifies the message, whether by softening it, delaying it, or adding personal interpretation, the purity of the word is lost.

Examples of prophetic disobedience:

1. Jonah's reluctance
  - God sent Jonah to Nineveh to declare impending judgment.
  - Jonah resisted because he disagreed with God's mercy (Jonah 1:3).
  - His disobedience led him into the belly of the great fish.

2. Balaam's compromise

- Balaam was a prophet, but he allowed bribery to influence his words (Numbers 22:12-22).
- Though he could not curse Israel, his desire for wealth corrupted his prophetic gift.

3. The unnamed prophet's fatal mistake

- A prophet was sent to warn King Jeroboam and was instructed not to eat or drink in that land (1 Kings 13:8-10).
- He was deceived by an older prophet and disobeyed God's direct instruction.
- A lion killed him because of his disobedience.

Every deviation from God's word comes with consequences. A prophet does not have the liberty to adjust the message based on personal comfort or public acceptance. He must deliver it as it was given.

The Cost of Prophetic Obedience

Prophetic obedience is costly. Those who obey God's voice without compromise often face:

- Rejection – The world does not receive truth easily.

- Persecution – Speaking the word of the Lord often brings opposition.
- Isolation – True prophets walk alone because their devotion is to God, not men.

"Am I now trying to win the approval of human beings, or of God? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ." (Galatians 1:10)

Prophets who seek approval from men lose their authority before God. The moment a prophet starts prophesying for favor, he forfeits the purity of his calling.

When the Word Is Heavy

There will be times when God gives a prophet a difficult word—a word of correction, judgment, or rebuke. The temptation to hold back will be strong, but a true prophet must declare it without hesitation.

- Nathan rebuked David for his sin, despite David being king. (2 Samuel 12:7-10)
- Elijah stood against Ahab and Jezebel, knowing they could kill him. (1 Kings 18:17-18)
- John the Baptist confronted Herod, and it cost him his life. (Mark 6:18-27)

A prophet must be fearless in speaking what he hears. He does not speak to gain favor or avoid conflict—he speaks because heaven has spoken.

*"You shall speak all that I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you."
(Jeremiah 1:17-19)*

Echoing Heaven Without Interference

A true prophet does not reinterpret God's words—he echoes them exactly as they are spoken.

A prophet's duty:

1. To Hear Clearly – Stay in communion with God to receive unfiltered revelation.
2. To Speak Boldly – Do not fear man; fear God alone.
3. To Obey Fully – Deliver the word without modification.

"What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the rooftops." (Matthew 10:27)

A prophet is not just a mouthpiece—he is a steward of divine mysteries. His obedience determines whether the purposes of God are carried out in their fullness.

A Final Warning: Do Not Be a Prophet for Hire

In every generation, there are two kinds of prophets:

- True Prophets – Those who speak exactly what God commands.
- False Prophets – Those who speak for profit, recognition, or personal agenda.

God warned against those who prophesy lies in His name:

"I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran. I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied." (Jeremiah 23:21)

Prophecy is not a business—it is a burden. True prophets carry the fear of the Lord, knowing they will be held accountable for every word they speak.

A Charge to the Prophets of This Generation

The time is short. The world is filled with deception. God is raising up a remnant of fearless voices—prophets who will declare His word without compromise.

If you are called to carry His voice, this is your charge:

- Hear clearly.
- Speak boldly.
- Obey fully.
- Fear no man.

Let the words of the prophet Amos be the fire within you:

"The lion has roared—who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken—who can but prophesy?" (Amos 3:8)

Are you willing to be a prophet of obedience? Will you declare only what you hear from the throne of heaven?

The time is now.

Episode 9: The Prophet's Wilderness

"Behold, I will allure her, bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfort to her." (Hosea 2:14)

Every true prophet walks through the wilderness—a season of isolation, testing, and refinement. It is in this place that God strips away the voices of men so that only His voice remains. The wilderness is not a punishment; it is a preparation.

Before God entrusts a prophet with His voice, He removes distractions, purges impurities, and strengthens resolve. It is in the wilderness that a prophet learns:

- The stillness of divine communion
- The weight of prophetic responsibility
- The cost of carrying God's voice

No prophet is exempt from this process. If you are called, you will be led into the wilderness.

The Wilderness: A Pattern of Divine Preparation

Every prophet, before stepping into the fullness of their calling, was tested in a season of isolation:

1. Moses in Midian

- Before Moses could lead Israel, he spent 40 years in the wilderness (Exodus 3:1-2).
  - Stripped of Egyptian royalty, he became a shepherd, learning humility and obedience.
  - It was in the wilderness that God appeared to him in the burning bush.
2. Elijah by the Brook Cherith
- After declaring judgment over Israel, Elijah was sent into hiding (1 Kings 17:3-6).
  - He was fed by ravens, showing him divine provision.
  - In this solitude, he learned to depend on God alone.
3. John the Baptist in the Desert
- John lived in the wilderness, clothed in camel's hair and eating locusts and honey (Matthew 3:1-4).
  - His separation prepared him to be the forerunner of Christ.
4. Jesus in the Wilderness
- Before beginning His ministry, Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness for 40 days (Luke 4:1-2).
  - He faced Satan's temptations, yet remained steadfast in the Word.

If Jesus, the very Word of God, was tested in the wilderness, how much more must His prophets endure this refining process?

Why the Wilderness Is Necessary

A prophet is not made in palaces or among crowds—he is forged in isolation. The wilderness:

1. Kills the desire for human approval
  - Prophets must speak what God says, not what people want to hear.
  - Isolation removes the temptation to seek validation from man.
2. Trains the ear to recognize God's voice
  - The noise of the world is silenced, leaving only divine whispers.
  - In solitude, revelation flows unhindered.
3. Teaches reliance on God alone
  - No crowds, no applause, no recognition—just God.
  - A prophet learns that man is not his provider; God is.
4. Tests faithfulness in small things
  - Before handling national or global assignments, prophets must be faithful in the hidden place.
  - Many desire a platform, but few are willing to endure obscurity.

"He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much." (Luke 16:10)

The Pain of the Wilderness

The wilderness is not easy. It is a place where:

- People misunderstand you.
- Doors seem closed.
- It feels like God is silent.

Even John the Baptist, who prepared the way for Jesus, had a moment of doubt in prison:

"Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?" (Matthew 11:3)

The wilderness tests your endurance. Will you hold on to what God has spoken even when you see no evidence of fulfillment?

"Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him." (Job 13:15)

How to Survive the Wilderness

1. Embrace the Process
  - The wilderness is not meant to destroy you—it is meant to refine you.
  - Instead of resisting, submit to God's shaping.
2. Stay Rooted in the Word

- When Satan attacked Jesus in the wilderness, He responded with Scripture.
- A prophet must know the Word deeply—it is both his weapon and foundation.
- 3. Cultivate a Hidden Life of Prayer
  - Prophets are intercessors first.
  - The deeper the calling, the deeper the prayer life must be.
- 4. Do Not Seek an Early Exit
  - Many fail because they try to escape the wilderness prematurely.
  - Joseph remained faithful in prison until God lifted him up.
  - David endured Saul's persecution before ascending the throne.

God's timing is perfect. Do not force open a door He has not yet unlocked.

Emerging from the Wilderness in Power

"Then Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and news of Him went out through all the surrounding region." (Luke 4:14)

- Jesus entered the wilderness filled with the Spirit.
- He exited in the power of the Spirit.

The wilderness does not weaken a prophet—it empowers him. When you emerge, you will carry:

- A purified voice—untainted by personal ambition.
  - A sharpened discernment—trained to recognize the whispers of heaven.
  - An unshakable boldness—fearless in declaring God's word.

The Final Test: Will You Be Hidden or Will You Speak?

When Elijah left the wilderness, he confronted Ahab without fear.

When Jesus finished His testing, He began His ministry with power.

The question is: Will you emerge ready to speak?

Many prophets never leave the wilderness because they refuse to step into their calling. They have been prepared, but fear, doubt, or complacency keeps them silent.

If God has called you, this is your moment to arise.

"Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you." (Isaiah 60:1)

The wilderness has shaped you. The trials have strengthened you. The fire has purified you. Now, it is time to carry His voice.

A Prophetic Commissioning

As you step into the next season, let this be your prayer:

"Lord, I have been tested, I have been refined, and I have been prepared. Now, I submit to Your call. May I speak only what You command, and may I never shrink back in fear. Let Your fire be upon my lips, and Your word be as a hammer that breaks the rock. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Are you ready? The wilderness was only the beginning. Now, your voice must roar.

Episode 10: The Gift of Prophecy Is for All, But Not All Are Prophets

"Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy." (1 Corinthians 14:1)

The prophetic dimension is vast, yet many confuse the gift of prophecy with the office of a prophet. While all believers are encouraged to desire and operate in the prophetic gift, not all are called to walk in the governmental weight of the prophetic office.

The enemy thrives on deception, and one of his greatest strategies is blurring the lines between the gift and the office, causing many to either reject the prophetic altogether or claim an office they were never assigned.

To bring clarity, we must distinguish:

- The Gift of Prophecy: Available to all believers, functioning as the Spirit wills.
- The Office of a Prophet: A divine ordination, established by God, carrying governmental authority.

The Gift of Prophecy: Available to All

"And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy..." (Joel 2:28)

The gift of prophecy is one of the manifestations of the Holy Spirit. Paul instructs believers to desire spiritual gifts, especially prophecy (1 Corinthians 14:1), indicating that prophecy is not reserved for a select few but is available to all who seek it.

Characteristics of the Gift of Prophecy:

1. Given as the Spirit Wills
  - The gift operates under the discretion of the Holy Spirit, not human control.
  - No one can "turn it on" at will—it is a divine inspiration, not a learned skill.
2. Primarily for Edification, Exhortation, and Comfort
  - "He who prophesies speaks edification and exhortation and comfort to men." (1 Corinthians 14:3)
  - It strengthens the body of Christ, bringing hope, correction, and encouragement.
3. Limited Authority
  - Those who operate in the gift of prophecy do not carry governmental authority.

- Their words must be weighed, tested, and judged by those established in leadership (1 Corinthians 14:29).
- 4. Not a Sign of a Prophetic Calling
  - Many who prophesy assume they are called to be prophets, but this is a grave mistake.
  - A believer may prophesy on occasion, yet never hold the office of a prophet.

The gift is a function, but the office is a calling.

The Office of a Prophet: A Divine Appointment

"And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers." (Ephesians 4:11)

The office of a prophet is not given to all believers. It is a sovereign appointment, established by God's choosing—not by human ambition.

Characteristics of the Office of a Prophet:

1. Called from the Womb
  - True prophets are not self-appointed; they are chosen before birth (Jeremiah 1:5).

- This calling cannot be earned, bought, or learned.
- 2. Carries Authority Over Nations and Territories
  - Prophets shift atmospheres, establish divine order, and uproot demonic structures (Jeremiah 1:10).
  - Their words carry governmental weight in the spirit realm.
- 3. Functions Beyond Simple Prophecy
  - Unlike those with the gift of prophecy, prophets do not just edify and encourage—they bring warnings, judgments, and strategic direction.
  - They operate in visions, dreams, angelic encounters, and divine visitations.
- 4. Faces Great Opposition and Suffering
  - Every prophet faces rejection, isolation, and persecution.
  - Their lives are marked by seasons of intense refinement.

A prophet does not just prophesy. He carries the burden of God's heart and speaks what others fear to declare.

Key Differences Between the Gift and the Office

Gift of Prophecy	Office of a Prophet
Available to all believers	A divine calling given to a select few
Operates as the Spirit wills	A lifelong commission
Strengthens and encourages	Brings judgment, correction, and divine strategies
No governmental authority	Governs territories and nations in the Spirit
Can function without persecution	Faces heavy spiritual warfare
Does not require training or process	Requires deep refinement, testing, and maturity

The Danger of Assuming a Calling That Is Not Yours

Many, desiring spiritual prominence, mistake the gift of prophecy for the office of a prophet. They prematurely call themselves prophets, not realizing the weight and cost of this mantle.

The Consequences of False Prophetic Claims:

1. Spiritual Warfare You Are Not Equipped For
  - The prophetic office attracts principalities and demonic attacks.
  - If God has not called you, you are stepping into a battle you are not anointed to fight.
2. Speaking Presumptuously
  - Many who claim to be prophets begin to speak from their own minds, not from God (Jeremiah 23:16).
  - False prophecies bring confusion and destruction.
3. Severe Judgment from God
  - God holds prophets to a higher standard of accountability.
  - Those who falsely claim the office bring judgment upon themselves (Deuteronomy 18:20).

Testing the Calling: Are You a Prophet or Do You Simply Prophecy?

If you feel drawn to the prophetic, ask yourself these questions:

- Do you carry the burden of nations?

- Has God personally spoken to you about a prophetic calling?
- Have you gone through seasons of intense refinement, isolation, and training?
- Has your prophetic accuracy been tested and proven?
- Are you submitted to spiritual authority for confirmation and accountability?

If you are unsure, wait upon the Lord. Do not rush into a title God has not given you.

"Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands, nor share in other people's sins; keep yourself pure." (1 Timothy 5:22)

A Final Word: Walk in What God Has Given You

Not everyone is called to be a prophet. And that is okay.

The body of Christ is diverse, with many roles, anointings, and functions. If God has given you the gift of prophecy, cherish it and use it faithfully—but do not assume a mantle He has not placed upon you.

Let us pray:

"Father, let me walk in the calling You have ordained for me. If I am called as a prophet, refine me and prepare me. If I am gifted in prophecy, teach me to use it in humility. Keep me from ambition and deception, and let me serve You in truth. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Episode 11: The Marks of a True Prophet

"You will know them by their fruits." (Matthew 7:16)

In every generation, God raises true prophets, but alongside them arise false prophets, self-appointed messengers, and deceivers. The question then arises: how do we distinguish a true prophet from a counterfeit?

A prophet is not recognized by title, charisma, or following, but by fruit, divine confirmation, and alignment with the voice of God.

A true prophet does not seek validation from men. Their authority is not self-proclaimed, but heaven-ordained.

1. A True Prophet Is Called and Sent by God

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you a prophet to the nations." (Jeremiah 1:5)

No one chooses to become a prophet. It is not a career, ambition, or ministry preference. It is a predestined ordination from before birth.

Key Signs of a Divine Calling:

- God Himself calls the prophet, not men.
- There is a clear moment of commissioning—an encounter, vision, or divine instruction.
- The call comes with a burden—a weight that cannot be ignored.

Moses was not seeking to be a prophet. God called him.

Jeremiah protested the call, but God confirmed it.
Amos was tending sycamore trees when God said, "Go prophesy!"

If God has not sent you, you have no authority to speak.

2. A True Prophet Speaks the Words of God Alone

"For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak." (John 12:49)

A prophet does not speak their own opinions, desires, or ambitions.

Every word they utter must align with the heart and voice of God.

The Marks of True Prophetic Speech:

- It carries divine weight—not empty motivation, but revelation.
- It convicts, corrects, and aligns with Scripture.
- It does not seek to please men, but to declare truth.

False prophets prophesy what people want to hear.
 True prophets prophesy what God is saying, even when it offends.

3. A True Prophet's Words Come to Pass

"When a prophet speaks in the name of the Lord, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously."
 (Deuteronomy 18:22)

The accuracy of a prophet's words is a direct indicator of whether they are speaking from God.

Testing a Prophecy:

- Does it align with Scripture? (God will never contradict Himself.)
- Does it come to pass? (A true word of the Lord does not fail.)
- Does it bear fruit? (A prophecy from God produces transformation.)

False prophets speak from imagination, but a true prophet speaks from divine revelation.

4. A True Prophet Carries the Burden of God

"Surely the Lord God does nothing unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets."
(Amos 3:7)

A prophet is a carrier of divine secrets, judgments, and plans.

What Does the Burden Look Like?

- A deep, unshakable grief over sin and rebellion.
- A relentless desire to see God's will established.
- An unquenchable fire to declare truth, even at great cost.

Jeremiah wept over Israel.

Ezekiel was commanded to act out divine warnings.

Elijah confronted false prophets with fire.

A true prophet cannot remain silent when God speaks.

5. A True Prophet Lives a Life Set Apart

"You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy." (Leviticus 19:2)

The prophetic life is one of consecration. True prophets do not live as the world lives.

Marks of a Consecrated Prophet:

- They are set apart in holiness.
- They are not driven by fame, money, or popularity.
- They walk in humility, not arrogance.
- They are not entertained by sin or compromise.

Prophets carry the voice of God, and therefore, must reflect His character.

6. A True Prophet Is Persecuted and Rejected

"Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake." (Matthew 5:11)

True prophets are never embraced by the masses. They are often:

- Hated for speaking truth.
- Rejected by religious systems.
- Attacked for their obedience.

Jesus said, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country and among his own relatives." (Mark 6:4)

False prophets are loved by the world.
True prophets offend the world because they speak the unfiltered voice of God.

7. A True Prophet's Life Bears the Fruit of the Spirit

"By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples." (John 15:8)

A prophet's life, not just their words, must reflect Christ.

The Fruit of a True Prophet:

- Love – They love people, even in correction.
- Humility – They do not exalt themselves.
- Obedience – They follow God at any cost.
- Faithfulness – They endure suffering for the sake of the call.

False prophets crave power, wealth, and status.
True prophets live only for the glory of God.

A Final Word: Testing the Prophets

"Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1)

In an age of deception, we must test every prophetic voice.

Questions to Ask Before Receiving a Prophetic Voice:

- Is their life marked by holiness?
- Do they carry the burden of God?
- Are their words scripturally sound?
- Do their prophecies come to pass?
- Are they persecuted for truth, or embraced by the world?

A true prophet does not seek attention. They seek only to echo the voice of the Lord.

Let us pray:

"Lord, in a world full of voices, help me discern what is from You. Keep me from deception, and open my ears to hear only what is true. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Episode 12: Prophetic Mantles & Their Assignments

*"And He gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors, and some teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ."
(Ephesians 4:11-12)*

The prophetic mantle is not a generic calling; each prophet carries a specific assignment within the divine order. Not all prophets are the same. Each is assigned a unique sphere, function, and mandate from God.

Throughout Scripture, we see various prophetic mantles—each carrying a distinct role, authority, and purpose. To understand where one stands in the prophetic, it is necessary to discern the mantle given by God.

1. The Mantle of the Foundational Prophet

"Having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone." (Ephesians 2:20)

These are prophets who lay the foundation for spiritual movements, churches, or divine reformations. They operate in governmental authority and are entrusted with the blueprint of God's plans.

Biblical Examples:

- Moses – Established the covenantal law.
- Samuel – Transitioned Israel into kingdom governance.
- John the Baptist – Prepared the way for Christ.

Signs of a Foundational Prophet:

- They set order in the body of Christ.
- They carry the architecture of heaven for new moves of God.
- They are builders—not just declarers of prophecy.

These prophets pioneer, establish, and ensure divine order.

2. The Mantle of the Seer Prophet

"The prophet that has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that has My word, let him speak My word faithfully." (Jeremiah 23:28)

The Seer prophets operate in visions, dreams, trances, and deep revelatory encounters. Their role is to see beyond the natural realm and decode the mysteries of God.

Biblical Examples:

- Daniel – Interpreted dreams and visions.
- Ezekiel – Had heavenly encounters and symbolic visions.
- John (Revelation) – Saw the apocalypse before it unfolded.

Signs of a Seer Prophet:

- Frequent supernatural encounters.
- Deep spiritual insight into hidden matters.
- A strong anointing for interpreting divine symbols and codes.

Seers do not just hear—they see the unseen realms and bring revelation from above.

3. The Mantle of the Judgment Prophet

"Cry aloud, spare not; lift up your voice like a trumpet; tell My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins." (Isaiah 58:1)

These prophets carry the fire of divine judgment, calling nations, churches, and individuals to repentance. They do not speak comforting words, but warnings, corrections, and divine rebukes.

Biblical Examples:

- Elijah – Confronted Ahab, Jezebel, and false prophets.
- Jeremiah – Wept over Israel's sins and declared their exile.
- John the Baptist – Rebuked Pharisees and called for repentance.

Signs of a Judgment Prophet:

- They carry a heavy burden for righteousness.
- Their messages often provoke resistance and persecution.
- They operate in confrontational power and signs.

These prophets stand against wickedness, even when it costs them everything.

4. The Mantle of the Prophetic Intercessor

"And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before Me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none." (Ezekiel 22:30)

These prophets stand between heaven and earth—interceding, travailing, and shifting the spiritual climate through prayer.

Biblical Examples:

- Abraham – Interceded for Sodom.
- Moses – Stood in the gap for Israel.
- Anna the Prophetess – Prayed until Jesus' arrival.

Signs of a Prophetic Intercessor:

- A deep, unrelenting burden for prayer.
- They experience divine downloads while praying.
- They shift atmospheres and destinies through intercession.

Prophetic intercessors are hidden warriors, engaging in spiritual battles unseen by men.

5. The Mantle of the National Prophet

*"He changes times and seasons; He removes kings and sets up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding."
(Daniel 2:21)*

These prophets operate at a national and governmental level. They are sent to speak to kings, leaders, and authorities, influencing policies and national destinies.

Biblical Examples:

- Nathan – Confronted King David.
- Elisha – Advised kings of Israel.
- Daniel – Interpreted the dreams of Babylon's rulers.

Signs of a National Prophet:

- Their voice impacts governments and territories.
- They are entrusted with divine blueprints for nations.
- They shift national events through prophecy.

These prophets operate in high-level dominion, speaking directly to rulers and shaping the course of history.

6. The Mantle of the Prophetic Psalmist

"Sing to Him a new song; play skillfully with a shout of joy." (Psalm 33:3)

These prophets release the sound of heaven, carrying prophetic songs, melodies, and decrees that shift atmospheres and bring deliverance.

Biblical Examples:

- David – Released prophetic warfare through the Psalms.
- Asaph – Led Israel in prophetic worship.
- Miriam – Sang after the Red Sea miracle.

Signs of a Prophetic Psalmist:

- Their worship carries supernatural power.
- They release prophetic decrees through music.
- They shift atmospheres and break demonic oppression.

These prophets war with sound—using music as a weapon in the spirit.

The Weight of Carrying a Prophetic Mantle

"To whom much is given, from him much will be required." (Luke 12:48)

A prophetic mantle is not a title—it is a burden. Every prophet must:

1. Know their mantle—function in the sphere God assigned.

2. Remain humble—mantles do not make men great, obedience does.
3. Walk in holiness—gifts without character lead to destruction.

Prophetic mantles are not earned—they are given by God for His purpose.

Let us pray:

"Lord, help me to walk in my divine mantle. Keep me from pride, deception, and misuse of Your calling. May I only speak what You command, and fulfill my prophetic assignment with purity and fear of the Lord. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Episode 13: The Whisper & The Thunder

"Then He said, 'Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD.' And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice." — 1 Kings 19:11-12

The Dual Expression of God's Voice

God speaks in different dimensions, and each carries a specific purpose. Some hear Him in gentle whispers, while others encounter His voice as thunder. Both are necessary, for they reveal different aspects of His nature.

The Whisper—A Voice of Intimacy

When God speaks in a still small voice, it is an invitation into deep relationship. The whisper is for those who have ears to hear, who are close enough to discern the gentle nudges of the Holy Spirit.

Biblical Examples:

1. Samuel – Heard God call his name in the night (1 Samuel 3:4).
2. Elijah – Encountered God in a whisper, not in the storm (1 Kings 19:12).
3. John the Beloved – Heard the intimate secrets of heaven while leaning on Jesus (John 13:25).

How to Recognize the Whisper:

- It often comes in quiet moments of prayer and meditation.
- It requires spiritual sensitivity—a trained ear.
- It brings instruction, correction, and revelation.

The Thunder—A Voice of Authority

When God speaks as thunder, it is a sign of His dominion, power, and judgment. His voice shakes the heavens and the earth, causing men to tremble.

Biblical Examples:

1. Mount Sinai – When God spoke, the mountain shook (Exodus 19:16-19).
2. Jesus' Baptism – The Father's voice thundered from heaven (John 12:28-29).

3. The Book of Revelation – John saw God’s voice as the roar of many waters (Revelation 14:2).

How to Recognize the Thunder:

- It awakens, warns, and commands attention.
  - It often accompanies prophetic decrees and divine interventions.
  - It releases supernatural manifestations and judgments.

When God Chooses to Whisper vs. When He Thunders

1. Whispers are for those in the secret place—those who seek Him.
2. Thunder is for those who need awakening—when God must act publicly.
3. The Whisper leads to revelation; The Thunder leads to movement.

Many desire to hear God in thunderous ways, yet neglect His whisper. A true prophet knows both expressions and learns when to listen and when to proclaim.

Are You Listening?

"The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered His voice." (2 Samuel 22:14)

The same God who thunders in the heavens is the One who whispers to His prophets. His voice both stills and shakes, drawing men into intimacy and into action.

Episode 14: The Heart & The Ear

*"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!" —
Matthew 11:15*

The Two Gateways to God's Voice

Hearing God is more than just receiving audible words—it is about perceiving His voice in the heart and the ear. A prophet must be trained in both.

- The Ear represents spiritual sensitivity—a trained ability to discern God's voice.
- The Heart represents alignment with God's will—a heart tuned to His frequency.

A prophet must develop both to accurately hear, interpret, and deliver the voice of God.

The Ear: A Spiritual Receiver

God speaks, but not everyone hears Him. Many have ears but do not hear because their spirits are dull or distracted (Matthew 13:15).

Biblical Examples of Those Who Heard with Their Ears:

1. Moses – Heard God's voice directly from the burning bush (Exodus 3:4).
2. Isaiah – Heard the voice of the Lord asking, “Whom shall I send?” (Isaiah 6:8).
3. Paul – Heard Jesus call his name on the road to Damascus (Acts 9:4).

Training the Spiritual Ear:

- Stillness – God often speaks in the quiet (Psalms 46:10).
- Meditation on the Word – His voice aligns with Scripture.
- Sensitivity to the Holy Spirit – He speaks through dreams, visions, and inner impressions.

If the ear is untrained, the voice of God may be heard but misunderstood.

The Heart: The Altar of Revelation

True hearing starts in the heart. Jesus said, “Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks” (Luke 6:45). If the heart is not aligned with God, what is heard will be misinterpreted.

Biblical Examples of Those Who Heard with Their Hearts:

1. Mary, the Mother of Jesus – She pondered the angel's words in her heart (Luke 2:19).
2. David – Had a heart after God, which allowed him to hear divine strategies (Acts 13:22).
3. John the Revelator – His heart was positioned to receive the mysteries of heaven (Revelation 1:10).

Training the Spiritual Heart:

- Purity – A pure heart perceives God's voice clearly (Matthew 5:8).
- Obedience – The more you obey, the clearer His voice becomes (John 14:23).
- Love for His Presence – Intimacy with God refines the heart's ability to hear.

If the heart is corrupt, even a clear word from God will be distorted.

Hearing in the Spirit Requires Both

1. An untrained ear can miss God's voice entirely.
2. A hardened heart can receive God's words but reject them.
3. A prophet must have a sharp ear and a surrendered heart.

Many people listen, but few truly hear. Many receive words, but few receive revelation. The difference is in the state of the heart and the ear.

Are You Ready to Hear?

"Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening." (1 Samuel 3:9)

Those who truly hear God's voice are those whose ears and hearts are aligned with Him.

Episode 15: Echoing Heaven—Speaking with Divine Accuracy

"For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak." — John 12:49

Speaking What Heaven Declares

A prophet is not called to voice personal opinions but to echo the declarations of heaven. Divine accuracy in prophecy is not just about speaking, but about ensuring that what is spoken aligns perfectly with God's intent.

- True prophets speak only what they hear (John 8:26).
- A misplaced word can alter destinies (Jeremiah 23:30-32).
- God confirms His word, not man's opinion (Isaiah 55:11).

The weight of being God's mouthpiece requires precision, obedience, and responsibility.

Echoing vs. Interpreting

A prophet must learn the difference between echoing and interpreting:

- Echoing – Repeating God's words exactly as given, without addition or omission (Numbers 22:38).
- Interpreting – Filtering God's message through personal biases, emotions, or intellect (Jeremiah 23:16).

Many fall into the trap of human interpretation, diluting the power of the message. Heaven's declarations must be spoken exactly as received.

Biblical Examples of Prophetic Precision:

1. Moses – Was commanded to speak exactly what God said to Pharaoh (Exodus 4:12).
2. Samuel – Not one of his prophetic words fell to the ground because he spoke accurately (1 Samuel 3:19).
3. Jesus – Only spoke what the Father commanded Him (John 12:50).

The Dangers of Imprecise Prophecy

When prophets speak from assumption, emotion, or presumption, they risk corrupting the message of God.

Three Forms of Inaccuracy:

1. Speaking from the Soul, Not the Spirit
  - Words inspired by emotion, frustration, or personal desire.
  - Example: Balaam, who tried to curse Israel against God's will (Numbers 22:12).
2. Adding to the Word of the Lord
  - When a prophet embellishes, exaggerates, or distorts the message.
  - Example: Hananiah, who prophesied falsely and died (Jeremiah 28:15-17).
3. Speaking When God Has Not Spoken
  - Declaring "Thus says the Lord" when God has said nothing.
  - Example: False prophets in Ezekiel's time (Ezekiel 13:6-9).

God holds prophets accountable for the accuracy of their words (Deuteronomy 18:20).

Keys to Prophetic Accuracy

1. Only Speak What You Hear (Jeremiah 1:7)
  - Even when pressured, a prophet must not alter the message.

2. Remain in the Presence of God (John 15:5)
    - The more a prophet abides in Him, the clearer the voice of heaven.
  3. Test Every Word (1 Thessalonians 5:21)
    - Not all voices are from God—discernment is required.
  4. Do Not Let Personal Bias Pollute the Word (2 Peter 1:21)
    - Prophecy must be Spirit-breathed, not self-inspired.
  5. Ensure Alignment with Scripture (Isaiah 8:20)
    - God's voice will never contradict His written Word.

The Prophet as Heaven's Echo

God is raising a remnant of prophets who will:

- Declare only what He speaks.
- Not bow to pressure, trends, or human expectations.
- Preserve the purity of the prophetic mantle.

A prophet does not create messages—he delivers them. The voice of God does not need enhancement, modification, or compromise.

As we move deeper into this journey, let this be our posture:

*"I will watch to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer when I am corrected." —
Habakkuk 2:1*

Episode 16: The Lion's Roar

"The LORD also will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem; The heavens and earth will shake; but the LORD will be a shelter for His people, and the strength of the children of Israel."
— Joel 3:16

The Roar of the Almighty

When God speaks, His voice is not a whisper of uncertainty—it is a roar that shakes the heavens and the earth. The Lion of Judah does not murmur; He decrees with finality. His voice demolishes, builds, commands, and establishes.

- God's voice as thunder (Job 37:4-5).
- His voice as many waters (Revelation 1:15).
- His voice as a lion's roar (Hosea 11:10).

When a prophet is aligned with heaven, he carries this same roaring authority. Prophets are not raised to be passive messengers—they are called to release the voice of the Lion into the earth.

The Authority of the Roar

A lion's roar serves as:

1. A Warning – It declares coming judgment or shifts (Amos 3:8).
2. A Call to Attention – It gathers those with ears to hear (Hosea 11:10).
3. A Mark of Dominion – It establishes territory (Jeremiah 25:30).

A prophet must understand when to whisper, when to speak, and when to roar. There are moments when prophetic voices must be bold, fearless, and unwavering—declaring what heaven is releasing without fear of man.

When God Roars Through His Prophets

Throughout history, God has roared through His chosen vessels to bring awakening, correction, and power:

1. Moses—The Roar of Deliverance (Exodus 5-12)

Moses did not request Pharaoh's permission—he declared God's command. His words carried the roar of deliverance, shaking Egypt to its core.

2. Elijah—The Roar of Confrontation (1 Kings 18:17-40)

Elijah stood alone against the prophets of Baal. His voice, aligned with God, brought fire from heaven. The roar of truth silenced deception.

3. Jesus—The Roar of Final Authority (John 18:6)

When Jesus declared, “I AM He,” those who came to arrest Him fell to the ground. His voice carried the ultimate roar of divine authority.

Prophets who carry the roar of heaven do not negotiate with darkness—they enforce the decrees of the Kingdom.

Silencing the Counterfeit Roar

Not every roar comes from God. The enemy imitates the roar of the Lion, seeking to deceive and manipulate:

- The False Roar—Satan as a Roaring Lion
(1 Peter 5:8)
  - The enemy roars to intimidate, distract, and devour.
  - His voice is one of fear, deception, and accusation.
- The Religious Roar—False Prophets
(Jeremiah 23:21-22)
  - They speak, but God has not sent them.

- Their roar is one of self-promotion and deception.

Only those who dwell in the presence of the True Lion will be able to discern and release the authentic roar of the Lord.

Becoming a Voice That Roars

To carry the roar of heaven, a prophet must:

1. Dwell in the Secret Place (Psalms 91:1)
  - Roaring without intimacy leads to noise without authority.
2. Speak What He Commands (Jeremiah 1:7)
  - A prophet cannot speak from emotion, but only from divine instruction.
3. Stand Without Fear (Micah 3:8)
  - Fearless prophets roar even in the face of kings, rulers, and nations.
4. Understand Timing (Ecclesiastes 3:7)
  - There is a time to speak and a time to be silent—a true prophet knows the difference.
5. Declare What is Written (Psalms 29:3-9)
  - God's Word is the roar—declaring Scripture with authority unleashes heaven's power.

The Roar That Shakes the Earth

When a prophet fully aligns with God's voice, his words will shake systems, nations, and generations. The voice of the Lord is:

- A fire that consumes (Jeremiah 5:14).
- A hammer that breaks strongholds (Jeremiah 23:29).
- A sword that divides truth from deception (Hebrews 4:12).

Prophets are not called to be silent in the face of darkness—they are called to ROAR.

As we prepare to step deeper into prophetic intercession, let us remember:

"The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter His voice from His holy habitation; He shall mightily roar..." — Jeremiah 25:30

Episode 17: Prophetic Intercession— Declaring What Is Written

"I will stand my watch and set myself on the rampart, and watch to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer when I am corrected." — Habakkuk 2:1

The Prophet as an Intercessor

A prophet is not only a voice that speaks but also a watchman that intercedes. Before declaring, a prophet must first perceive, receive, and birth the word in the place of prayer. Prophetic intercession is not just praying to God—it is praying with God, enforcing His will, and aligning with what is already written in the heavens.

- Moses stood in the gap for Israel (Exodus 32:11-14).
- Daniel interceded based on prophetic writings (Daniel 9:2-3).
- Jesus Himself is the Great Intercessor (Hebrews 7:25).

When a prophet intercedes, he is not speaking his own will but is echoing the decrees of heaven into the earth realm.

The Divine Legal System—Declaring What is Written

In the courts of heaven, God's Word is law. A prophetic intercessor does not pray from emotions but enforces what is already decreed in the Word.

- God moves according to His Word (Isaiah 55:11).
- Angels respond to His decrees (Psalms 103:20).
- The prophetic voice must declare divine legislation (Jeremiah 1:12).

When a prophet declares what is written, he activates angelic armies, shifts atmospheres, and shakes nations.

The Power of Speaking in Alignment

1. Prophetic Intercession Begins in the Spirit

Before a word is released, a prophet must first hear, see, and discern. Many prophets make the mistake of speaking prematurely—but prophetic intercession requires waiting on the Lord until the word is fully formed.

- Habakkuk waited to “see” the word (Habakkuk 2:1).
- Elijah prayed until the rain came (1 Kings 18:42-45).
- Jesus only spoke what He heard the Father say (John 12:49).

A prophet never moves ahead of God—he waits, watches, and listens before releasing divine decrees.

2. Prophets Must Pray from the Scrolls of Heaven

Jeremiah was told, "I will hasten My word to perform it." (Jeremiah 1:12). But God only performs what He has already spoken. Prophetic intercessors must tap into heaven’s archives and declare what is already written in the books of destiny (Psalms 139:16).

- Daniel saw in the scrolls that Israel’s captivity was ending, and he prayed it into fulfillment (Daniel 9:2-3).
- Jesus found His assignment written in the Scriptures (Luke 4:17-21).
- John saw future events in the heavenly scrolls (Revelation 5:1-5).

Prophetic intercession is not about asking God to move—it is about enforcing what has already been decreed.

3. The Prophetic Voice as a Gavel in the Spirit

A prophet in intercession is like a judge in the courts of heaven—his decrees are final and binding when spoken in alignment with the King's will.

- Isaiah commanded the heavens to align (Isaiah 45:11).
- Ezekiel prophesied to dry bones, and they lived (Ezekiel 37:4-10).
- Jesus cursed the fig tree, and it withered immediately (Mark 11:14, 20).

When the prophetic intercessor speaks, creation responds.

The Intercessor's Role in Spiritual Warfare

Prophetic intercession is not just about speaking—it is also about enforcing divine victories in battle. A prophet does not just release words; he shifts realms and dethrones darkness.

The Four Realms Prophets Must Engage in Intercession

1. The Courts of Heaven – Where legal decrees are enforced (Daniel 7:10-14).

2. The Battlefield of the Spirit – Where spiritual warfare is waged (Ephesians 6:12).
3. The Altars of the Earth – Where covenants are established or broken (Genesis 12:7).
4. The Thrones of Nations – Where rulers and kings are positioned or removed (Daniel 2:21).

A prophetic intercessor does not just react to problems—he legislates solutions from the spirit realm.

The Travail of the Prophetic Intercessor

Prophets do not pray casual prayers—they travail like a woman in labor. The birthing process of prophetic intercession requires deep groanings, tears, and endurance.

- Hannah travailed in prayer and birthed Samuel (1 Samuel 1:10-20).
- Elijah travailed until the rain came (1 Kings 18:42-45).
- Jesus travailed in Gethsemane before the cross (Luke 22:44).

Prophetic intercession is not about comfort—it is about laboring in the spirit until heaven's will manifests on earth.

When Prophets Declare, the Earth Responds

"You will also decree a thing, and it will be established for you; and light will shine on your ways." — Job 22:28

A prophet's voice is not ordinary—it carries creative power. When a prophet intercedes and declares what is written, supernatural shifts take place:

1. Nations realign (Isaiah 60:1-3).
2. Kingdoms shake (Haggai 2:6-7).
3. Darkness is driven out (Isaiah 58:6).

Prophetic intercession is not begging God—it is ruling with God.

The Call to Prophetic Intercession

The greatest prophetic voices in history were intercessors before they were messengers. They stood before God in prayer before they stood before men in power.

- Moses—Stood in the gap for Israel (Exodus 32:11-14).
- Elijah—Prayed until the heavens obeyed (1 Kings 18:42-45).

- Jesus—Interceded for all believers (John 17).

A prophet must not only hear—but he must also intercede, legislate, and birth divine realities into existence.

As we move forward, remember:

"Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know."
— Jeremiah 33:3

Episode 18: When the Heavens Shake— Prophets and Judgment

"Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven." — Hebrews 12:26

The Prophetic Voice as a Catalyst for Divine Shaking

The voice of the prophet is not a whisper in the wind; it is a trumpet that heralds divine movement. When God releases His word through a prophet, realms tremble, nations shake, and the unseen world responds.

- At Mount Sinai, His voice shook the earth (Exodus 19:18-19).
- Through Haggai, He declared He would shake nations (Haggai 2:6-7).
- In the end times, His voice will shake both heaven and earth (Hebrews 12:26-27).

The shaking is not destruction—it is divine realignment. When God shakes, He is removing what is perishable so that only what is unshakable remains.

The Prophetic Role in Judgment and Shaking

Throughout history, prophets were never just messengers of hope; they were also sent to warn, uproot, and shake.

1. The Prophet as a Herald of Coming Shaking

Prophets do not cause the shaking, but they announce it, prepare for it, and explain its meaning.

- Noah warned of the flood before it came (Genesis 6:13-22).
- Jeremiah was set over nations “to root out and to pull down” (Jeremiah 1:10).
- John the Baptist proclaimed judgment and called for repentance (Matthew 3:7-12).

Prophetic voices are not raised to comfort men in sin—they are sent to awaken nations before divine shaking begins.

2. The Prophet as an Instrument of Shaking

Sometimes, a prophet’s voice itself becomes the instrument of shaking. The word they release stirs realms, exposes corruption, and forces hidden things into the open.

- Elijah's decree stopped rain for three years (1 Kings 17:1).
- Jonah's prophecy shook Nineveh to repentance (Jonah 3:4-10).
- Jesus cursed the fig tree, and it withered instantly (Mark 11:12-14, 20).

Prophets do not just speak for the sake of speaking—they shift realities with their words.

3. Prophetic Judgment: The Lion's Roar

Judgment does not always mean destruction—it means God's divine justice being enforced.

"Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. The lion has roared—who will not fear?" — Amos 3:7-8

The lion's roar is the prophetic announcement of judgment, calling nations and individuals to account before God.

- Samuel rebuked Saul and stripped his kingdom (1 Samuel 15:26-28).
- Nathan confronted David with his sin (2 Samuel 12:7-10).
- Isaiah prophesied Babylon's fall before it happened (Isaiah 13:19-22).

The prophet does not pass judgment from his own will—he declares what is already decreed in the courts of heaven.

---

What Happens When the Heavens Shake?

When the heavens shake, everything below is affected. But the shaking has a purpose—it reveals, refines, and restores.

1. The Exposure of Hidden Agendas

God's shaking exposes what is hidden in both spiritual and political realms.

- Jesus overturned tables in the temple, exposing corruption (Matthew 21:12-13).
- The apostles' preaching shook cities, uncovering demonic strongholds (Acts 16:16-18).
- Paul's shipwreck was a shaking that revealed divine authority (Acts 27:21-25).

God's shaking is not random—it is intentional, strategic, and prophetic.

2. The Removal of What is Not of God

"Now this, 'Yet once more,' indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain." — Hebrews 12:27

When God shakes, He is removing what is built on the wrong foundation.

- False altars were destroyed when Gideon obeyed God (Judges 6:25-27).
- The walls of Jericho fell at the prophetic sound (Joshua 6:20).
- Ananias and Sapphira fell under divine judgment (Acts 5:1-11).

The shaking comes to remove what is perishable, so only the eternal remains.

3. The Restoration of God's Divine Order

Every divine shaking is followed by a time of restoration.

- After the flood, Noah stepped into a new covenant (Genesis 9:8-17).
- After Israel's exile, they were restored under Nehemiah and Ezra (Nehemiah 1-2).
- After Pentecost, the Church was empowered for its mission (Acts 2:1-4).

Prophetic judgment does not end with destruction—it ends with restoration for those who align with God's purposes.

How Should Prophets Respond to Divine Shaking?

1. Stand in the Council of God

"For who has stood in the council of the Lord, and has perceived and heard His word? Who has marked His word and heard it?" — Jeremiah 23:18

A true prophet does not react to news—he stands in God's presence and hears from heaven. Before releasing a word, he must ask:

- What is God shaking?
- What must remain after the shaking?
- What is the divine instruction for His people?

2. Warn and Prepare the People

Before judgment, God always raises a voice to warn and prepare. A prophet's role is not just to speak—but to guide, intercede, and instruct.

- Noah prepared an ark before the flood (Genesis 6:14).
- Joseph prepared Egypt for famine (Genesis 41:28-36).
- Jesus warned His disciples about the destruction of Jerusalem (Matthew 24:1-2).

A prophet must prepare God's people, not just announce judgment.

3. Call for Repentance and Alignment

The goal of divine shaking is not destruction but alignment. Every prophetic warning should lead people to repentance, surrender, and divine positioning.

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." — 2 Chronicles 7:14

A prophet must not only declare the shaking but also reveal the way of escape.

The Final Shaking and the Unshakable Kingdom

The ultimate shaking is coming—when the King returns, and everything is brought under His rule.

"Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come."
— Revelation 12:10

Prophets today must prepare for the final shaking:

- Nations will tremble (Revelation 6:12-17).
- False kingdoms will fall (Revelation 18:2).
- The righteous will inherit the unshakable Kingdom (Hebrews 12:28).

This is the hour for prophetic voices to arise—not to comfort men in complacency, but to declare what is written and prepare the way of the Lord.

Conclusion: The Call to Be an Unshakable Voice

"Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear." — Hebrews 12:28

The world is shaking, but God's Kingdom remains firm. The call of the prophet is to stand unshaken, to declare the decrees of God, and to prepare the earth for the coming King.

Author's Testimony 1: The Voice That Commands Deliverance

All glory to the Lord, whose Voice breaks every chain and brings freedom to the captive. This testimony is a reminder that when God speaks, His words are not suggestions—they are commands that establish His will. True deliverance comes not through human effort, but through obedience to His instructions.

A young boy named Jaswant had suddenly stopped eating. For over ten days, he refused food, only eating if given screen time. Without it, he seemed to be restrained by something unseen. His parents were concerned, and though many tried to help, the situation remained unchanged.

But God had already spoken. A week before this, He directed me to pray for children with autism at the hospital. On March 22, 2025, I placed my hand on Jaswant's head and prayed, believing for his healing.

That night, however, the Lord corrected me.

"If you had asked Me, I would have shown you the root of the issue. The stronghold is in his intestine—you should have placed your hand on his belly and rebuked it."

I repented for relying on my own understanding instead of seeking His Voice first.

On March 25, 2025, I returned, this time following His precise instruction. Placing my hand on Jaswant's belly, I commanded the affliction to leave in Jesus' name.

Then, as I prepared to pray again, the Lord spoke:

"As soon as you pray, I will heal him. Tell them the child will start eating after two days."

Faith requires obedience, even when the outcome is unseen. I told the caretakers what the Lord had said.

By March 28, 2025, Jaswant ate a full meal for the first time in days! The Lord had fulfilled His word.

Through this, I learned a valuable truth: Prophetic accuracy is not about assumption but about listening to God's Voice with precision. Had I continued in my own understanding, the struggle would have remained. Deliverance is not in our words, but in His.

This is the calling of every true prophet—to hear, obey, and declare what God has spoken. The prophetic is not about performance but about partnership with His Voice.

May this testimony stir you to seek the Lord's Voice above all else. For when He speaks, the impossible becomes possible.

Author's Testimony 2: The Voice That Heals

God's Voice carries healing and restoration. When He speaks, sickness bows, and affliction is removed. Healing is not found in rituals or methods but in alignment with His word.

My colleague, Sister Jayanthi, had been unwell for four days—fever, body aches, cold, and a severe headache. Despite her condition, she continued working at the hospital reception, pushing through her weakness.

One day, as she sat beside me, the Lord spoke clearly:

"Tell her she will be healed before tomorrow."

It was not a guess. It was not a hope. It was a statement of certainty from God Himself.

I turned to her and said, "God says you will be healed before tomorrow. I don't know whether it will happen in the evening, at midnight, or in the morning—but He has spoken it."

She simply nodded and said, "Okay."

The next morning, as I went about my work, the Lord reminded me:

"Go and pray in thanksgiving, for Jayanthi shall be a testimony of healing."

Then, as she arrived at work, before I could even ask her how she was feeling, she looked at me and said:

"I am completely fine and healed now! I started recovering last evening, and this morning, I woke up fully restored."

The Lord had done exactly as He said.

This moment reaffirmed a profound truth: Healing is not in our hands, but in His Voice. Many seek miracles, but few understand that the key is not striving—it is listening. When God speaks, we must believe, declare, and stand on His word.

The prophetic life is a life of trust. It is a call to hear and speak only what He has commanded.

Let this testimony remind you—if you desire to be a voice for God, first learn to hear Him with clarity.

For it is written:

"He sent His word and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions." (Psalm 107:20)

To Him alone be all the glory!

Conclusion

A Call to Arise and Walk in the Weight of Being God's Voice on Earth

The time of silence is over. The days of hiding in the shadows of uncertainty, fear, and complacency have ended. The Lord is calling forth His prophetic voices to arise—to stand in the authority given to them before time began. The mantle of the Voice of God (VOG) is not for the faint of heart, nor for those who desire comfort over calling. It is for those who have been forged in the fires of consecration, those whose ears have been tuned to the whispers of heaven, and those whose hearts burn with the burden of the Lord.

This book was not written merely to inform but to awaken, to activate, and to ignite a movement of prophetic vessels who will boldly echo the voice of the I AM. The Word of the Lord is not passive; it is not meant to be stored within and left dormant. It must be spoken, declared, and proclaimed with unwavering conviction.

Stepping Into Your Prophetic Assignment

Now that you have journeyed through these pages, you must decide—will you simply close this book and return to life as usual, or will you step forward into the divine commission upon your life? The weight of being God's voice comes with responsibility, and those who accept this call must walk in divine precision, obedience, and authority.

You are not alone in this journey. The Spirit of the Lord is upon you, and He will empower you to carry out the mandate assigned to you. You are part of a remnant chosen for such a time as this. This generation needs the prophetic voice of the Lord to thunder in the midst of darkness, to shatter deception, and to usher in the will of God upon the earth.

This is the era of the roar—the thunderous sound of heaven's decree through the mouths of those He has appointed. You were born for this. You were anointed for this. You were chosen to be His voice.

Now, rise. Speak. Declare. Let the voice of the I AM resound through you.

"These six actions—rooting out, pulling down, destroying, throwing down, building, and planting—are accomplished through prophetic speech."

Final Prayer

A Prophetic Activation Prayer for the Readers

Heavenly Father,

In the mighty name of Jesus Christ, I come before You, standing in agreement with every reader whose heart burns with the desire to be Your voice upon the earth. Lord, You have called them, chosen them, and set them apart for such a time as this. Now, I ask for an impartation of boldness, accuracy, and unwavering obedience to carry out this prophetic mandate.

Father, release the fire of Your Spirit upon them. Let the coals from Your altar touch their lips, purging every impurity and aligning their words with heaven's decree. May their ears be opened to hear Your whispers, their hearts be attuned to the rhythms of Your will, and their mouths be filled with divine utterance.

Let fear be silenced. Let doubt be cast down. Let the enemy's deception be shattered. I declare that they will walk in the authority of their prophetic calling, standing firm against opposition and moving in supernatural wisdom and revelation.

I release over them the anointing of the prophets of old—the courage of Elijah, the clarity of Samuel, the intimacy of Moses, and the boldness of Jeremiah. May they root out and pull down strongholds, may they destroy and throw down the works of darkness, and may they build and plant according to Your divine blueprint.

Father, let their voices become the roar of many waters—unstoppable, unshakable, and filled with the power of Your Spirit. May they be conduits of Your will, releasing heaven's agenda on earth with precision and power.

I seal this prayer in the blood of Jesus, declaring that no weapon formed against their prophetic calling shall prosper. They are marked, they are set apart, and they are commissioned for Your glory.

In Jesus' mighty name, Amen!

Acknowledgments & Credits

This book, I AM - the Whirlwind & the Thunder; it's the Roar of Many Waters, is not merely a work of human effort but a divine orchestration by the Spirit of the Living God. Every revelation, every word penned, and every insight unfolded was birthed through His leading. To Him alone belongs all glory, honor, and praise.

To My Beloved Holy Spirit

You are the breath behind these words, the fire that ignites revelation, and the voice that speaks within the voice. Without You, this book would not exist. You are the teacher, the guide, the revealer of mysteries, and the One who empowers the vessels You call. Thank You for trusting me with these divine utterances. I surrender this work back to You, for it is Yours from beginning to end.

To the Hidden Ones—God's Prophetic Remnant

To those who have walked the wilderness, who have carried the burden of the Lord in secret, who have suffered the cost of obedience—this book is for you. May these words awaken, strengthen, and confirm the call upon your life. You are not alone in this journey; Heaven stands with you. Arise and speak, for the time of silence is over.

To Those Who Walked This Journey With Me

Though names remain unspoken, Heaven bears witness to those who have stood as pillars in the birthing of this book. To those who have labored in prayer, offered counsel, and encouraged this assignment—your role in this work is eternal. Every seed sown, every word spoken in alignment with God’s will, and every sacrifice made is recorded in the books of Heaven. Thank you for standing as co-laborers in the unfolding of this divine mandate.

To Every Reader Called to Be the Voice of God

This book is not just for reading; it is for activation. You were chosen before time began to carry the voice of the I AM. May these pages equip you, sharpen you, and propel you into your divine assignment. This is your hour to rise, to declare, and to roar with the sound of heaven.

To the One who sits on the Throne, to the Alpha and Omega, to the Everlasting I AM—may this book be an offering laid at Your feet, a vessel through which Your voice resounds across the earth.

All glory, all honor, all power belong to You alone.

Amen.
